

January 9th, 2006
Joint Agenda Meeting

-Roll Call

-Constitution Changes

Ali motioned to accept

2nd by

12 For

0 Against

0

-CI² approval for ½ the budget $4,000 for bike racks on campus and covers

Ali motioned to accept

2nd by Jeff

12 For

0 Against

0

First Five Minute Open Period

- Is the quad turning into a Greek amphitheatre?
- Nothing is definite many ideas are being thrown around
- Nursing school is sending out e-mail soon
- Classes while on co-op...do you have to pay?
- Will talk to provost about this to clarify

Assembly Reports

GOA

- Advertising in the Triangle
- Constitution center

AAA

- Drexel Review getting started this term
- Need to get the entire student body to vote on +/-
- Seems as though they are going to accept it
- Fireside chats (Nate has 1 for the 23rd)

SLA

- Student org meeting
- Student org set up costs- comparison to actual charges
- Working with athletics to do something before the Individual Reports

- Stacey: Town Hall Meetings are the 23rd, 24th 30th, 31st from 6pm-7pm in dorms (Dan will put posters up in the dorms)
- Gallup survey about 40 questions takes less than 10 minutes-January 31st
- Liked the idea of a raffle or giveaway in conduction with this (IPOD, etc.)
- Triangle discussion on USGA articles

-Ali: Board of Nursing site visit-> No place to eat or gather so hopefully
New lights and carpeting were done over break and a list of lecture halls that need fixing is being prioritized

WebCT was bought out by Blackboard so there will be a slow transition
Nursing met goals for enrollment +200 more for next year

-Micah: Govtracker system will be displayed at the next meeting

Discussion on updates through the system

Link/PDF will be sent out with the constitution and it will be added to the website

President's Corner

Trial period of security expansion to Spring Garden Street is over

Wants to see the numbers on crime before this goes on anymore

Push for Philadelphia Police substation to be re-opened

Library Café by summer term

Starbucks was looking to open up Café in Pearlstein but Taki

T's for 3's program supported by Taki

Talked about possible pep rallies like before Delaware game

Taki said numbers from Gallup polls will be published

+/- Grading said the USGA would not support this and faculty voted for the +/- grading

This is now moving to the provost

Want more student feedback and even an open forum

Faculty and Students both had low voting rates

Meeting with the new Dean of the library

Discussed extending the hours- Created student survey that will be out by this Friday

Very receptive to the changes brought up such as those regarding food

New Business

Fill CoMad, Goodwin and Co-op position

Steph is ready to start advertising these positions

E-mail vote on co-op position

Constitution discussion: Quorum discussion

Motion to take out Article 7, Section 1, Clause E

Quorum for joint session will be a simple majority

2/3 Quorum for an assembly meeting

Motioned by Chris

2nd by Jeff

11-0-0

Article 3 Section 2 Clause C

1 representative in AAA that can be elected by any student enrolled in a co-op program

Ali motions

Jeff Seconds

11-0-0

President can not vote in future meetings

11-0-0

Website- They have until the end of week 2 to finish it up
This should have been done 6 months ago

Advisor's Comments

Reception in the suite Thursday for B-ball...RSVP by Wed.

Dean's advisory council meeting soon

 "Stupid rules" – Validation of ID's

 Center City Student Govt still hasn't been given a budget

 Their money went to SAFAC instead

Blocks that are painted for frats and sororities...why can't student orgs partake?

Check on spreadsheet with Molly